Summary

Messages from God: An Illuminated Devotional is a coffee table book and devotional reminiscent of medieval illuminated manuscripts. It combines poetic language, photography, and graphic design to create an immersive experience of God's healing presence for the reader.

This devotional is organized into 30 individual readings, which can stand alone or be read as a five week study, either for yourself or a group. It is a spiritual walk through healing that journeys from daily life to a transcendent vision of heaven. In this devotional you will find comfort and peace not only in the words, but also the images and typography as they create an immersive experience of God's presence.
